Develop Our Airfield And Make Access Easier, States Conference Delegate In His Report

Coleman Fortunate to Have Airfield of Present Size in Such a Mountainous Region.

(By Coleman's Delegate)

Not many days ago the aviation committee of the Calgary Board of Trade gathered together representative men of all walks of life from Lacombe south to the border to talk over the aviation of the future for southern Alberta. There were also representatives from many parts of the Dominion, as well as the State of Montana. In addition, there were present engineers, weathermen, technicians and airmen.

The men from outside the province came to help make this clinic, as it is called, a success, and give it all the information possible.

The airmen were interested in commercial aviation, their talks always impressing one with the fact that these young men had a plan and were anxious to see it fitted with civilian thought and governments' future regulations. One could also tell that our neighbors to the south were several steps ahead of us. This, of course, is to be expected, because of the already tremendous air traffic the war has brought on. They have had to build many airfields, and these will fit in well with civil and commercial aviation plans of the future.

However, the same cannot be said of western Canada. While we have many airfields for the population is so scattered that not many can be served by the fields already in operation although they were placed with an eye to the future.

The work of the committee in charge was to see if the different communities cannot, on their own, make strips or air parks, as they may be called in the future, which are safe and handy enough to serve their respective communities. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion at the clinic that any community not having an air park is going to suffer the loss of the tremendous air traffic which is predicted and which is shown in the polls in the United States and Canada.

Mr. Patterson, of the Aeronautic Institute of Canada, predicted 3000-6000 civil airplanes for the United States in the first three years and one plane to every 1,000 persons in the first year for Canadians. The plane, unlike the automobile, must have a place to land. Even the automobile had its day of pioneering when the roads were only trails and twenty-five miles an hour was considered reckless driving. If we were to look back on those days we find lots of similarity between the automobile of then and the plane of today.

The war of 1914-18 brought out the development of the automobile. Many can remember the look of longing at a model T Ford and the beginning of streamlining and the gradual development of speedier motors and the closed car and the balloon tires and the shock absorbers and the gravel roads and then the hard-surfaced roads which brought about the speed of 80 to 100 miles an hour.

The present war is also developing the aeroplane, but unlike the gradual development of the automobile, the plane manufacturers have all the experience behind them in respect to proper ignition and their mechanized safety devices to apply to the plane. As a result we can look forward to much speedier development. Unlike the automobile, the plane won't require miles and miles of good road bed, the skyways are wide open and smooth and no telephone posts to climb or corner to turn on two wheels.

Once the safety features the airplane manufacturers are developing are completed, air travel will be as safe if not safer than the automobile, and the community that is served by an airfield will have the advantage over the others for years to come.

Coleman is certainly fortunate to have an airfield of such size in such a mountainous area and it is up to us to care for it, develop it further and make access to it easier and when the influx of air traffic begins we will be on the ground floor and our community will receive the full benefit and service that comes with air travel.

CLYDE JESSUP

Clyde Jessup, publisher of the Nanton News, was elected president of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers Association at the annual convention sessions of the division at the Macdonald hotel, Edmonton, held last week end. He succeeds W. H. Schierholtz, of the Rocky Mountain House Mountaineer.

Named as first vice-president is A. H. Avery, publisher of the Taber Times; second vice-president is C. Nesbitt, of the Brooks Bulletin. Directors are: A. Balloch, of the Westlock Witness; W. Miller, of the Olds Gazette, and W. Drayner, of the Wetaskiwin Times.

The two-day convention officially closed with a luncheon at noon on Saturday, tendered by Canadian paper houses.

FAREWELL PARTY

A farewell party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Hatalcik on Sunday, Oct. 1, in honor of Millie Rucka. About forty guests were present and games and dancing were enjoyed by all. A dainty luncheon was served, followed by the presentation to the honored guest of a lovely necklace, for which she ably thanked her many friends. She stated she would always remember her Coleman friends through the necklace, and invited them to visit her should they ever visit Nampa. The party concluded shortly after midnight with the singing of "For she's a jolly good fellow."

LIBERATION OF EUROPE: FIRST WOMEN TO LAND IN FRANCE

Personnel of Queen Alexandra's Imperial Military Nursing Service were the first women to arrive on the Normandy beachhead. On June 13, seven days after the initial landings of the Allied Expeditionary Force, Lieutenant Colonel Helm, of Colchester, arrived with two sisters, followed three days later by a party of 50 sisters. Their purpose was the setting up of a general hospital to house 600 patients, and with the assistance of Pioneers and the RAMC, the hospital was quickly established and is now functioning well. Picture shows the matron, Senior Commandant Mellor, addressing the nurses and detailing them for their duties.

Students Back to School After Long Summer Holiday

Primary Grades Carrying Full Load; Teachers Busy With Time Tables.

On Monday morning youngsters holding tightly to their mothers' hands up to the more mature students came back to school classes after one of the longest summer recesses on record.

Most seemed eager to get back to the class room and settle down to a more regular routine than that practiced during the holidays. The higher grades have not yet settled down to their studies as considerable time is required to draft a time table that will be most suitable to all the high school students.

Principal Hoyle has not had time to secure figures of the total attendance in central, high and Cameron schools, but from an advertisement appearing in this issue, the primary grades are carrying a full load and the deadline for the entrance of beginners is set for those youngsters having their sixth birthday on or before Oct. 1.

There will be no home economics class this term, Miss Laura Johnston will teach in central school this year after several years at Cameron school. Mrs. A.E. Graham will be assigned to the Cameron school staff. Miss Mary McIntyre has been appointed to the central school staff.

Council to Seek Fish Hatchery For Coleman; New Honor Roll to be Prepared

To Follow Up Correspondence For Radio Booster; Water Still Contaminated.

Regular meeting of the council was held on Friday evening. Present Mayor Antrobus, Councillors Cox, Jenkins, Lowe and Ramsay.

The latest water analysis from Edmonton reveals that the local drinking water is still contaminated.

Correspondence was received from C. Clarke re non-removal of ashes from his premises. He will be notified that he has to have containers with lids on located in a spot not more than three feet from the street to conform with the Removal of Garbage By-Law.

A letter was received from J. Crawford, chief inspector of mines, regarding the dust nuisance. It was tabled till the next meeting.

D. G. McKenzie, provincial sanitary engineer, informed council that he had recently returned from his vacation. Letter was filed.

Council will sponsor a move to establish a fish hatchery in Coleman. Secretary was instructed to write the provincial department of fisheries for the purpose of starting negotiations.

Dissatisfaction was voiced in regard to several names on the town's honor roll. Some, it was stated, did not even belong to Coleman and had not even enlisted here. As a result a new honor roll will be printed and that names placed thereon to be members of the active forces only and residents of Coleman at time of enlistment.

Nothing has been heard from the CBC regarding the radio booster which Coleman desires installed here to improve reception. Secretary was instructed to communicate further with the CBC on the subject.

Al. MacQuarrie Member Of Moose Squadron

CPL. AL. MACQUARRIE

On many occasions local citizens have read and heard of the exploits of the famous Canadian "Moose" Squadron over enemy territory in Europe.

Few knew that a local boy, Cpl. Al. MacQuarrie, had been a member of the squadron's ground crew since its inception. Al. has been overseas for several years and is justly proud of his squadron's world-wide fame.

At present under the command of Wing Commander Roy McLaren, DFC, of Montreal, the squadron has won 46 decorations—45 DFC's and 15 DPM's.

PICK COLORS FOR ALBERTA CAR LICENSE PLATES

The color combination of Alberta's car license plates next year will be orange on a black background, according to information which the Alberta Motor Association has received from the provincial secretary's department.

Officials already are making plans for the handling of the licenses. It is confidentially expected that the "sticker" system will be abandoned in 1942, as it has been indicated that metal plates will be supplied by the manufacturers.

As in the past, the metal plates will be attached to the rear of the vehicle.

Advertising acts as a tonic to any head of business enterprise—

Joe Citizen Says—

You know, I always think it queer that such a land as this one here should have to coax and beg and plead for money for an urgent need. Our loans, I grant you, end up strong—but how they crawl and creep along! And no one asked to GIVE a dime but just to LEND cash for a time! You'd think that everybody would be buying all the bonds they could to speed the day that sees our men brought back to Canada again. And also help to make it sure—a good sound peace that will endure!

Yes, sir, we ought to back this loan with every dollar that we own. To stop right now and pare and prune would be to quit the job too soon. And that would certainly look grim to those who offered life and limb.

Lions District Governor Visited Local Club

Accompanied by Lions Holbein, Baker and Moreland; Supper-Meeting Held at Greenhill.

Coleman Lions were honored last Wednesday evening when their district governor, Dr. Deatherage, of Montana, paid an official visit to the club. He was accompanied by Bill Holbein, Lions international representative; Phil Baker, district governor from Lethbridge, and O. Moreland, zone chairman from New Dayton.

A supper-meeting was held at the Greenhill Grill, where the visitors were welcomed by Lion president A. Balloch. Dr. Deatherage addressed the meeting on Lionsism and dealt fully with the early history of Lionsism. Lions Holbein, Baker and Moreland also gave brief addresses.

NOTES AND COMMENTS

"Just Like Home"

We were in conversation with a young airman recently who told us some of his experiences in travelling throughout Canada to various training centres. In speaking of one place, he remarked that it was just like home. "When you went down town there was nothing to do, main street was dead, it just reminded me of home." Home, as he referred to it, meant the home town.

Here was a truth being voiced by one of our local youth. What has Coleman to offer the youth of the town in entertainment? A show, pool room, beer parlor:

While in Edmonton last week end we read with interest a story regarding the "Edmon-teens." Here were a group of teen aged young people enjoying themselves in a hall. The hall had a dance floor, a juke box and a long counter at which were served pop, sodas, candy, etc. All, according to a picture heading the story, were having a good time dancing and enjoying one another's companionship.

Why can't Coleman sponsor something along similar lines? It could be done. We have two energetic organizations here in the Elks and Lions. Let them unite if they think the job too big for one to handle alone.

Air training schools are closing down within a short distance of Coleman. There must be drill halls or some other buildings suitable for such recreation as listed above that will no longer be used by the air force personnel. If representation was made to the proper authorities, there is a chance that a suitable building could be secured at very little cost. Equipment, such as a juke box to supply dance music, chairs, counters, stock, could then be obtained. Revenue could be secured through the sale of goods over the counter.

Coleman is sadly lacking in its entertainment facilities for the youth of the town. Let's invest in Young Canada.

Newspaper Week

This is Newspaper Week throughout the Dominion. This week tribute is being paid newspapers by service clubs, boards of trade and councils, for its magnificent work in the war effort, maintaining morale, as a community booster and as a friendly adviser.

The Journal has endeavored to do its best to aid the war effort by supporting Victory Loan drives, war charity drives, boosting the community in every way possible, encouraging service clubs and individuals to maintain a progressive pace both in their own name and the name of the community. Not only has this support been given through uncounted columns of news space, but also in having its staff take part in many and varied activities.

It is the policy of The Journal to support all that is good and progressive in the country and community and to suppress to its utmost that which is bad. With the continued support of merchants and citizens The Journal will continue to mirror community activities.

Government Borrowing and Personal Savings

Why are heavy government borrowing and personal savings essential in wartime?

It is the avowed policy of the government to pay as much of the costs of war as is possible out of taxation. There are, however, practical limits to what can be done by taxation alone. When taxes on incomes become very high they reduce a man's incentive to earn more by producing more or working harder or running his business more efficiently and economically. It also becomes more difficult to make proper allowances for the various circumstances that govern a man's ability to pay taxes, as a fair taxation system should do. Moreover, it is not possible by taxation alone to reduce the spending of individuals to the level where it will not cause higher prices. It is necessary, therefore, for the government to meet the balance of its war expenditures, and to drain off dangerous excess purchasing power, by appealing to citizens to save all they can, and to invest those savings in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates.

To what extent have individual Canadians responded to the appeals of their government to save and invest in Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates?

More than 3,000,000 applications were received in the Sixth Victory Loan campaign. Since the war began, individuals have bought and held more than $3,250,000,000 of War and Victory Bonds and War Savings Certificates.

Into One Pocket—Sure!
but OUT of the other

Each of us is both consumer and producer.

As a producer each of us would like to get MORE money for our goods or services.

As a consumer each of us wants the costs of living kept down.

But we can't have it both ways.

As long as goods are scarce and money plentiful, prices have to be controlled or they'd jump sky high.

If prices are to be kept down, then costs of production including salaries, wages and raw materials must also be controlled.

One Person Can Start It!

When any one of us—

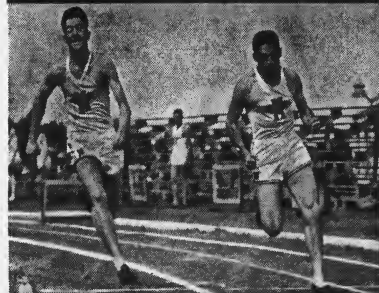

- offers to pay more than legal prices;
- asks higher returns for his services;
- asks higher prices for his goods.

He helps start a chain that forces every one else to do the same and nobody is better off.

THIS IS ONE OF A SERIES ISSUED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA TO EMPHASIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF PREVENTING FURTHER RISE IN THE COST OF LIVING NOW, AND DEFLATION LATER.

WEDDINGS

WATSON—POPENIUK
On Friday, Sept. 29, at 4:30 p.m., the United church names was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Cpl. Robert Watson, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Watson, and Rosalie Popeniuk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Popeniuk, all of Coleman, were united in holy wedlock, Rev. G. A. Kettys officiating.

The bride looked charming in a light tulle suit with brown accessories and wearing a shoulder corsage of talisman roses. Miss Helen Ziajka was bridesmaid. She chose a brown and sand ensemble for the occasion with corsage of pale pink Johanna Hill roses. Mr. James Lowe was groomsmen. After a brief honeymoon, Cpl. Watson will report to Currie Barracks, Calgary, while Mrs. Watson will 'carry on' as teacher of the school at Burmis.

Their many friends wish the young couple every happiness with the hope that, before long, the end of the war will enable them to be reunited for the happy task of home-making.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Thrift... IS PRACTICAL PATRIOTISM

How many ways can you saveto LEND TO CANADA?

In the homes, all over Canada, loyal, patriotic women are discovering new ways to economize... new ways to save money to lend to their country. A little saved here and a little saved there provides money to lend to Canada to help pay for the war. Small sums from millions of Canadians mount to billions when totalled up.

The amount that you may lend to your country may seem a small sum to you, but pennies make dimes and dimes make dollars, and Canada needs every single dollar that every Canadian can save and lend. Canada's need for borrowing is greater now than ever before. Every Canadian must lend, and lend more than before.

Money you save and invest in Victory Bonds will benefit you in a personal way, too. You will have cash, when the war is over, to buy things you want for your home... things you are doing without now... cash to pay on a new home... to pay on a new car.

"That's why I have life insurance with The Mutual Life of Canada, and why I add to it whenever I can. It guarantees security for them—and for me when I retire."

Life insurance companies are much alike as to policies and rates, but actual long-term results vary widely. We invite you to compare The Mutual Life of Canada's record with that of any other company. Evidence of the satisfaction of Mutual Life policyholders is furnished by the fact that whole families and succeeding generations have entrusted their life insurance programs exclusively to The Mutual Life, and each year about 35% of its new business comes from policyholders.

Have a Mutual Life representative explain the special features of this Company... and let him help you select a policy adapted to your particular circumstances.

NOT A WAR PICTURE

"The Fallen Sparrow," RKO-Radio's movie of love and espionage in New York City, isn't a war picture, but it springs out of that curtain-raiser of the present conflict—the Spanish revolution. It starts at the Palace on Saturday and continues till Tuesday.

"The Fallen Sparrow," an action-packed and suspenseful big spy-mystery movie based on the best-seller of the same name by Dorothy B. Hughes, brings Maureen O'Hara and John Garfield together for the first time in co-starring roles. Their parts are peculiarly suited to their outstanding talents.

Garfield has played some of the screen's greatest "hard guy" roles, but he was never tougher nor more realistic than as the young American adventurer who returns from civil war, prison and tortures in Spain to match wits with Axis agents in his own New York City and in the midst of his circle of well-to-do friends. His love-making to three beautiful women particularly strikes a new note.

Not even as a villain has he or any other screen smoothie succeeded in putting over such hard-boiled, ruthless romancing, a quality which makes his love affairs in the picture with Miss O'Hara, Martha O'Driscoll and Patricia Morrison strikingly different.

This is better understood when it is explained that he suspects all three women of being agents of his deadly foes. The latter have despaired of torturing him until he would reveal a secret the fascists want, and which they are now trying to obtain by subtler means. He is out to avenge not only his own wrongs, but the murder of a friend at enemy agents' hands.

In New York he faces unseen peril, for his foes are hiding among the horde of refugees that have been taken to the bosom of his acquaintances there. They all seem sinister at first, but gradually his detective work and turning of the feminine agents to help, willingly or unwillingly, in his own cause reveals the real agents and begins to make their plot against him clear.

Joe Citizen Says---

Our needs would really fill a book.
—Most anywhere I chance to look there's something showing wear and tear and often, too, beyond repair.
Take paint now! Both inside and out.

our need for paint is past all doubt.
And I'm just itching to commence the building of a brand-new fence.
My wife, too, has the odd complaint.

—She says 'twould aggravate a saint the way her kettles one by one, in one-horse-shay style, just go done.

And the linoleum she says, with truth, has all seen better days.
But still we neither one deny that war bonds are the things to buy.

For, after all, we only lend the price of them, and we can spend our money with an easy mind when these sad times lie far behind.

WINSTON CHURCHILL VISITS NORMANDY FRONT

The British Prime Minister travelled to France in a destroyer and spent several hours ashore. He visited headquarters and drove round a part of the bridgehead in a jeep. He was given a wholehearted welcome by the troops. Later he toured various parts of the water front in a motor boat. He was accompanied by Field Marshal Sir Alan Brooke, chief of the Imperial general staff, and by General Smuts,

CANADA'S VETERANS Their Post-War Opportunities

This is the first of a series of advertisements to inform the people of Canada of plans to re-establish men and women of the armed forces. To get the full details save and read every advertisement.

For complete information write for the booklet "Back to Civil Life."

The Future After Discharge — A MESSAGE TO RELATIVES OF THOSE IN THE ARMED FORCES

When your boys and your girls come home, when they lay aside the uniform, when they go out into the world as normal peace-loving Canadians, what lies ahead? Can they pick up their lives as civilians, where they laid them down, months or long years ago? Are there plans to help them do the things they wanted to do before the war? Will they have security? Can they continue education, or receive needed training? Will they be assisted in home owning, or to establish their own business, and will they be enabled to pick up their family life once again?

These are questions which concern all those Canadians who have loved ones in the services. They are questions which this series of advertisements is designed to answer.

OPPORTUNITY IS THE OBJECTIVE

Canada has been making plans for your boy's and your girl's return to civilian life since early in 1940. These plans are in effect and operating now. The aim is that every person who has served shall have opportunity. Thousands, already back in civilian life, have benefited by training, by maintenance grants, by advice of departmental officials, and by the social security provisions. There is ample help for those men and women who want to help themselves.

ASSISTANCE ON DISCHARGE

When your boys and girls are discharged from the services, they will be given:

1. A clothing allowance of $100.00 (if discharged after August 1, 1944).
2. Their pay to date of discharge.
3. One month's additional pay, if they have 183 days' continuous service, as a rehabilitation grant.
4. A railway warrant home or to the place of enlistment.

Dependents will receive:

1. Their normal dependents' allowance to date of discharge, with assigned pay.
2. An additional month's dependents' allowance, with assigned pay, if there has been 183 days' continuous service.

Your boy or girl will be allowed to retain certain items of uniform. They will be given a complete medical and dental examination and will be eligible for free needed treatment for a year after discharge. Those discharged not physically fit, in need of continuing treatment and unable to work, will have their pay and allowances of rank continued for at least a year if necessary and, if the disability is pensionable, for as long as curative treatment is beneficial. All are interviewed by Veterans' Welfare Officers and told of the re-establishment programme.

WAR SERVICE GRATUITY

On discharge, those enlisted to serve outside Canada, or those who served in the Aleutian Islands, are eligible for a war service gratuity. It provides $7.50 for each thirty days' service in Canada and the Western Hemisphere and $15.00 for each thirty days' service overseas or in the Aleutian Islands. For those with overseas service or with service in the Aleutian Islands, there is an additional seven days' pay and allowances for each six months of such service. Payments will be made at the end of each month in the months following discharge. Complete details of the war service gratuity will be given in a later advertisement.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT CREDIT

In addition to the war service gratuity, there is a re-establishment credit of $7.50 for each thirty days' service in the Western Hemisphere and $15.00 for each thirty days' service overseas. This is for things such as the purchase or repair of a home, the buying of furniture, a business, or government life insurance, and for certain other purposes which will assist your boy or your girl in becoming re-established. This credit, which is reduced by grants given for training or education, or under the Veterans' Land Act, is primarily for those who do not wish assistance under these three plans.

RETURN TO FORMER JOBS

If your boy or girl held a civilian position before enlisting, and was not engaged to replace somebody already in the forces, and if the position still exists, and your boy or girl is capable of filling it, it is the employer's duty, under the law of Canada, to reinstate him or her in that position with seniority. Application for reinstatement must be made to the former employer within three months of discharge from the forces or from hospital.

Veterans' Welfare Officers are stationed in key centres throughout Canada. They are the friends of Ex-Service men and women. It is their duty to advise and assist all Ex-Service personnel with their re-establishment problems. If there is anything about the Rehabilitation programme which you do not understand, consult your nearest Veterans' Welfare Officer.

TRAINING AND EDUCATION

The surest way to permanent employment—the thing your boy or girl will want—is a skill to get and to hold a job. Canada's plans give opportunity to acquire needed skill either at university or in preparation for a business or industrial career. Fees are paid by the state, along with living allowances, while training or continuing education.

WHILE ILL OR UNEMPLOYED

There is protection against illness or unemployment by maintenance allowances which can be drawn against in the first eighteen months after discharge. There is also protection under the Unemployment Insurance Act for those who enter insured employment and remain in it fifteen weeks.

HOME OWNING AND FARMING

There is provision to assist city and other workers to have homes of their own, either on small acreages of land outside the high taxation area, or in town, under the National Housing Act. Full-time farmers can be given financial assistance in full-time farming, while commercial fishermen may secure financial help in getting their own homes, on small acreages of land, and in buying needed fishing equipment.

FREE TREATMENT

In the year following discharge, service men and women are eligible for free treatment, hospitalization and allowances for any condition, even if not the result of service. Pensioners are entitled to this free life for their pensioned disability.

THE POLICY ON PENSIONS

Canada's Pension Act is administered by an independent commission, all former members of the services. Any permanent disability suffered overseas, not a result of misconduct, is pensionable. Where service is in Canada only, the disability must be a result of service.
